

CHRIST-CENTERED COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT: A JOURNEY TO GUATEMALA

MARCH 13 - 20, 2020

Trip Leader:
Juan Sarmiento,
Associate Director for Mission

The Outreach Foundation is sponsoring a trip to Guatemala to learn from ministries that are making a difference by bringing Christ's hope to their communities.

Travel to Coban, a primarily indigenous area where the impact of Presbyterians is felt through K-12 education, the development of new congregations and a new theological center for church leaders.

For more information and trip application contact The Outreach Foundation: info@theoutreachfoundation.org.

Learn more about the rich diversity of cultures in the country and how they are sharing the Good News despite serious social conditions.

Hear about transformational ministries directly from Guatemalan pastors and believers.

Estimated costs: $900 ground costs + international airfare
